$2,100 FOR THE RED CROSS

Citizens in Town Responded Most Generously When Collectors Called on Thursday—Town's Share is $1,181, Township's Share $966

The GRIMSBY Town and Township lived up to their reputations as generous givers to war causes on Thursday last when the residents contributed $2,000 to the British Red Cross Fund. $1,181 of this amount was collected in the Town and $966 in the Township. Reeve Fleming had charge of the collections in the township and the work in the town was under the guidance of Reeve Farrell.

The committees in charge of the collections in the various wards in town did their work well. It was a dreary, drizzly day, but the workers went at it enthusiastically and that they did their work well is evidenced by the fine sum collected.

Ald. Randall had charge of the centre ward, Ald. Marsh the south ward and Ald. Hillier the north ward.

Fanny Ward to Appear at Grimsby's Popular Playhouse

FANNIE WARD in "UNCONQUERED" LASKY-PARAMOUNT

Hobart Bosworth, the celebrated stage and screen star, who recently made such a success as Bill Sykes in the Lasky-Paramount production of "Oliver Twist," will be seen at Moore's Theatre on Saturday, Nov. 10th, in support of Fanny Ward in "Unconquered," an unusual story of society life written especially for Miss Ward by Beatrice C. De Mille and Leighton Osmun, the clever writers who are responsible for several other of Miss Ward's photodramatic successes. Others in the cast are Jack Dean, Tully Marshall, Little Billy Jacobs and Mabel Van Buren.

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying.

—they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting, —the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make?

What answer will you make?

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

Canada's Victory Loan Campaign opens on Monday, November 12

FISH, AND STILL MORE FISH

Fish and more fish and still more fish. Yes, Melinda, the Town Council had another fish session on Friday night last and as a result GRIMSBY is going to receive a second lot of Government fish. These fish are known as "Hanna Fish." They are the species of the fishy tribe captured at great expense to the management in the salty waters of the Atlantic Ocean and shipped to Toronto for delivery among the poor, half-starved citizens of Ontario, GRIMSBY included.

The council appointed Mr. J. P. Robertson as the agent here to handle the salt-water fish and Mr. J. H. Wells will be the agent for the fresh water fish. But in the words of "Pec-wee" Farrow, the Council Chambers most honored guest, "What good are fish if you have no coal to cook them with."

The council made a grant of $200 to the Italian Red Cross and $200 to the war work department of the Y. M.C.A.

Council passed a motion instructing the Clerk to have a sign placed on the poles adjacent to the fire hall, warning the public not to tie their horses or leave automobiles standing in front of the fire hall door.

For all pains and tightness in the chest and back, and in fact, for all purposes for which the old fashioned mustard plasters were used, Parke's Rubi Rub is much better. It is warming and stimulating to the parts to which it is applied. In handy tubes 25 cents each, at Parke & Parke's, Market Square, Hamilton.

OLD PARTY EXECUTIVES IN LINCOLN COUNTY FAILED TO AGREE UPON CANDIDATE

THANK YOU.

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincerest thanks to the citizens of GRIMSBY for their most generous response to my appeal for the British Red Cross fund, and also to the workers who gave their time and their labors to collect the envelopes. I knew that the citizens of this fair village would answer the call for funds most readily, but their generous response on Thursday last was beyond my fondest expectations, and I am greatly pleased with your fine response.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. T. FARRELL, Reeve.

CHARLIE WASNIDGE KILLED

Just as we go to press the sad news reaches GRIMSBY by telegraph that Charlie Wasnidge, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wasnidge, Ontario St., had been killed in the north.

He left GRIMSBY about ten days ago with a deer hunting party for the hunting grounds in Haliburton district. There were twelve in the party including his brother Frederick. No particulars as to how he met his death have been received.

EXEMPTION BOARD MEETS TO-MORROW

GRIMSBY'S Exemption Tribunal will open this morning.

The Tribunal consisting of Messrs. Bromley and Burland will hold daily sessions until further notice. The Tribunal will use the Council Chambers and all men claiming exemption will be ordered to report before this Tribunal by mail.

Several local boys have already been ordered to either appear before the Board to-morrow morning or else present their claims in writing.

Mr. Geo. C. Whyte, the Military Representative has been a busy man the past two weeks preparing data on the different cases and his work before the Tribunal is much the same as a County Crown Attorney.

VICTORY LOAN COMMITTEE

The honorary committee for GRIMSBY and North GRIMSBY, who will have charge of the sale of all Victory Bonds in this district have been appointed.

Ald. H. H. Marsh has been named as captain of the team and he will have associated with him, Ald. Randall, Thos. Allan, Clerk of North GRIMSBY, and Mr. C. W. P. Carpenter.

This committee are now receiving full instructions and on Monday morning next when the Bonds are placed on the market will proceed to sell them.

BE A SHORT, BUY A VICTORY BOND.

SUPPLYING LUMBER TO AIRDROME

Work on the Beamsville Aviation Camp is being rushed rapidly ahead these days. Horse plows and tractor plows are working to beat the band. A great quantity of stone is being crushed on the property to be used in the laying of cement roads.

Several big boarding houses and hangars will be built before the snow flies. D. Marsh & Sons, of GRIMSBY, have the contract for supplying all lumber and timber that is being used and up-to-date have delivered over two carloads.

ADDITIONAL RED CROSS LIST

On pages 1 and 6 of this issue appears the list of the contributors to the British Red Cross in GRIMSBY. Since this list was put in type a second list has come in which brings the total up to $11,151.57.

Delegations From Both Committees Held Conference in the County Buildings on Saturday, but Failed to Pick Union Candidate.

HARMONY PREVAILED

J. D. Chaplin Agreed to Withdraw, but Liberals Stuck to Capt. Lovelace—Major Lancaster Suggested as the Third Man.

(St. Catharines Standard)

The executives of the two old political parties for the county of Lincoln assembled in two different halls in St. Catharines on Saturday, but not with the results that would best harmonize with the recent appeal of the premier nor the expressed sentiments of Friday's Liberal convention at Hamilton in favor of a complete burial of the party hatchet and a joining of hands for the support of the union cabinet.

From an outside point of view, the indications of co-operation between the men who undertook to represent the feelings of the several thousand voters of the county was perfect. But on the inside there was little evidence that the magnetism of the win-the-war spirit that is drawing the old parties together in numerous other constituencies had made a serious impression.

A conference committee was named by each executive, the joint meeting taking place later in the grand jury room of the county buildings, which and the outward appearance of serene harmony; each side was treated with a due amount of courtesy, the get-together spirit was in concrete evidence but dual willingness to scrap the old parties for the unionist movement was lacking.

That the other fellow had to say, but the necessary desire to sacrifice was not present in sufficient quantities to bring the results that have been acquired by the party leaders.

The Delegates.

The two party executives were represented at the conference by the following:

Conservative—R. J. Clark, Merriton, President; E. H. Shepherd, Niagara-on-the-Lake; C. H. Claus, Louth; W. J. Drope, H. Fleming, Thos. Allan, C. W. F. Carpenter, Grimsby; Jacob Smith, Byron; Hon. Berger, Thos. McGeachie, St. Catharines.

Liberal—J. E. Masters, Niagara-on-the-Lake; W. G. Sutton, Port Dalhousie; H. J. Bradley, Merriton; W. Randall Grimsby; J. M. Elson, J. T. Petrie, P. A. Shepherd, W. J. Robertson, W. H. McCordick, Mrs. Wilson Taylor, Mrs. John McClive, St. Catharines.

Already Committed

W. J. Robertson, a former educationist, whose name for many years adorned several public and high school text books in Ontario, was the chief spokesman for the Liberal section of the gathering. His remarks were graceful and at the outset gave promise of overtures toward unity, but after completing the preamble of what had every promise of introducing an adorable proposition based on difference-sinking lines he imparted to the gathering the information that the Liberal executive had reached an unalterable conclusion that they had one choice only, Capt. E. J. Lovelace, a Liberal candidate twice defeated in times of peace but now at the front engaged in the practical business of pushing the Huns out of France and Belgium. It was indifferent phraseology to the same effect that Mr. Robertson dropped this bit of enlightenment of what had transpired within the secrecy of his party executive, but it was tempered with a certain amount of oil-tempered emphasis that admitted of misunderstanding, and caused Mr. Drope to essay, "Then you are tied up to your candidate."

Just as you are tied up to your candidate, Chaplin," came from one of Mr. Robertson's delegation.

Compromise Candidate

Mr. Drope announced that the Conservative executive had committed itself to Mr. Chaplin at a previous meeting, but that on that same afternoon, Mr. Chaplin was very fair and clearly expressed his willingness to step down, if it was thought that another man was desirable in the light of recent developments. Mr. Drope offered as evidence of the sincerity of Mr. Chaplin's remarks and the spirit with which the Conservative executive had accepted the proposition by way of compromise. Eager queries from the followers of the ancient "rouge" for the name of the compromise candidate elicited the information that he was Major E. H. Lancaster, who answered the call of the Empire the first week of the war and was among those original Canadians who first stepped into

Facts and Fancies
 By Frank Fairborn

Sir Wilfrid's Manifesto:
 Sir Wilfrid has issued his manifesto and he is still opposed to the Military Act.
 Sir Wilfrid introduces a great many planks into his platform, on the tariff, on the high cost of living, and on almost every other conceivable subject in order to draw the people's attention away from the vital subject, the Military Act.
 Sir Wilfrid says that if he is returned to power that he will suspend the operations of the Military Act until such time as the people have an opportunity to vote on it. He also says he will submit the question to the people in the form of a referendum.
 The Globe very fittingly puts it when it says that the troops at the front want men and Sir Wilfrid gives them words.
 The weak point in Sir Wilfrid's whole stand is, that he will delay sending reinforcements to the front until he gets a decision from the people to do so and supposing the decision from the people was against Sir Wilfrid, then what would Sir Wilfrid do? Sir Wilfrid would naturally return to the voluntary system and if the voluntary system would not produce men, and we have nothing to show that it will, what would Sir Wilfrid do then? The answer is that he would do what he has done right along, nothing.
 Sir Wilfrid has shown clearly by his conduct that he has no desire to send reinforcements to the front. In fact, he asserted in Parliament and he has asserted in a statement later, that if he was returned to power he would immediately go to England and he would find out from the British Parliament exactly what they wanted.
 I do not know of and I cannot conceive of any more foolish statement that a public man could make at this time than that of Sir Wilfrid.
 Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the mighty statesman and eminent Canadian, would have to go to England to find out what was wanted, when any schoolgirl, or any schoolboy of the age of ten years could tell Sir Wilfrid what was wanted,
 and that is men, and more men.
 Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Sir Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some people have said that language is the means of concealing our thoughts. Sir Wilfrid is making this statement as shown by his conduct.

Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Sir Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some people have said that language is the means of concealing our thoughts. Sir Wilfrid is making this statement as shown by his conduct.
 The one great blessing that we are to be thankful for is that west of Quebec and east of Quebec both Liberals and Conservatives will to a great extent support the Union Government.
 In a great many counties the two parties will combine on one candidate.
 In other counties, although there may be a Liberal and a Conservative in the field, each will be pledged to the support of the Union Government, so that outside of Quebec Sir Wilfrid will not have nearly so strong a following as he has figured on. Liberals and Conservatives have realized alike that this is the hour for action not for talk.
 Canada will have lots of time in the future to discuss its tariff and its agricultural implements and its many other problems, but the problem and the only problem that should attract the people's attention to-day is how much can we help in the effort to bring the war to a successful conclusion.
 Sir Wilfrid is trying to condemn the combines and corporations, but there is not a big combine nor a big corporation in Canada to-day that was not formed under Sir Wilfrid's Government previous to 1911. Sir Wilfrid talks about reducing the high cost of living but he does not explain how a butcher can go out and buy a dressed hog under twenty-five dollars a hundred, nor how a drover can buy a good two-year-old steer under eighty or ninety dollars, nor how a dairyman can buy a good milk cow under a hundred and twenty-five dollars.
 It is foolish for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to talk about introducing some panacea or cure-all for the high cost of living, when everything that enters into human food in Canada is produced from the farms and the price at the farmer's gate is high because the demand is in excess of the supply.
 Sir Wilfrid proposes to make the farmers take less for his hogs and his cattle and his grain and his potatoes than the market is willing to pay him at his gate, but before Sir Wilfrid does that he should also provide the farmers with help at reasonable wages when the demand for labor is greater than the supply.
 Sir Wilfrid also proposes to conscript wealth and in the next breath he proposes to take the duty off luxuries so that the wealthy man can get his goods cheaper and beat the Government out of the duty. Sir Wilfrid has a wonderful idea of political economy. Sir Wilfrid has had his opportunity and he failed to grasp it.

A Great Drawing Team
 By Augustus Bridle
 A good drawing team is just as much of a joy to the man that owns it as it is used to be in the bush-log days. We talk a good deal—some of us—about the great horses we used to handle the ribbons over in the bush, lifting out great loads of elm logs, sometimes 1,500 feet or 2,000, sometimes more according to the man who was telling it, from the stump to the skidroad and the concession line.
 Certainly some of those teams could draw; and surely some of their drivers did use to talk about it. But there are good average hauling teams in the country now than there were in the bush days. Farmers have gone in for specialising on draughts and roadsters, because they understand that a poor team is bad economy when work has to be done in a hurry. Getting stuck with a load in the fields is a dead waste of time and of temper. We used to be stuck often in the old days with some of those poor teams picked up any old way at an auction sale. But a good span of Clydes or Percherons nowadays is a real piece of insurance against wasting time with stuck loads.
 The only thing that happens in that line with such horses is broken harness or a snapped reins.
 Of course a good deal depended on the driver as it does now. One of the best drawing teams ever known in an Ontario county would pull like a tractor engine for the boss, but when it came to the hired man they see-sawed and jumped in the collar like a pair of balky Texas steers. When the boss pulled the lines over them and yelled, "Git down together"—they got down those Bob Hunters, and lifted the load, heavens, how they could lift it! No matter what the load was, grain, or logs, or gravel; it came out of the hole on to the high-road, just by the simple knack of getting down together.
 Just now the greatest hauling team ever known in Canada are engaged in lifting the biggest load that a team ever stood in front of. The load, $150,000,000 of Canadian Victory Bonds.
 That's a tremendous load. The load is there all right. Canada has the money; twice as much, ready to pile up for victory. It's a matter of lifting the load. It's a matter of what team is to do it, and who will be the driver.
 What's the best team for this job?
 The Canadian Farmer and the Government of Canada.
 If those two can't lift a great part of that load, you might as well leave it alone.
 Who is the driver?
 A great boss named Victory.
 Victory. VICTORY!

 Where we have such a large number of children as we have in our town and city schools, the time spent on each one has to be very limited. Some regular routine has then to be considered in order to get through in the time allotted. Here the school nurse is of very material assistance to us. She arranges the dress for examination and does the clerical work. Printed cards are used to preserve the record of each child from year to year. In this way we can see what progress the child is making, and if our recommendations are being carried out a rapid survey of the child will show the general physical make up, noting nutrition, mouth breathing (indicating adenoids, presence of pedicul, anaemia, enlarged glands, etc). The mouth being opened, number of decayed teeth, color of gums, the presence of enlarged tonsils, cleft palate, scars on tongue, are noted. The ears are tested with watch, and any departure from normal estimated; also the presence of a discharge. The lungs and heart are next examined, but owing to lack of time our records here are not as complete as we would like.
 The different defects are noted down on the card according to degree of departure from normal by placing No. 1, 2 or 3 in the spaces opposite, indicating good, slight, very bad.
 The nurse calls at the homes of these children and explains to the parents or guardian what we have found wrong, and advises seeing the family physician, specialist or dentist, as indicated. She also reports on the home surroundings and offers any suggestions that she can in regard to the welfare of the child. A tactful nurse can do much good in this way, and is very soon respected.

REAL VALUE

is based, not on the price paid for a commodity, but on the benefit derived. That is why Zam-Buk is the cheapest skin healer on the market—because the benefit derived is 95% greater than can be got from ordinary ointments. This is due to the fact that Zam-Buk is all medicine—100%. Ordinary ointments are 5% medicine and the balance animal fat.

The superiority of Zam-Buk is proved by the many cases of chronic skin trouble and old sores which yield to the power of Zam-Buk.

The unusual power of penetration which Zam-Buk possesses enables it to reach the underlying tissues, where skin troubles have their "root." Then the germicidal properties in Zam-Buk destroy all germs. Until this is done healing can never be thorough. The reason why sores that have been treated with ordinary ointments break out again is because the remedy has never got to the seat of the trouble, but has only healed over the outer skin. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, uproots skin disease, and the cure is complete and permanent.

Zam-Buk should always be used for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, blood-poisoning, bad leg, piles, cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

PATRIOTIC CAKES: THOSE WITH A MINIMUM OF SUGAR FILL REQUIREMENTS

Pastry cooks in England have been forbidden by government ordinance to use frosting on cakes or to enrich them with fillings, creams or otherwise to increase the amount of sugar used in their manufacture. It has all been worked down to a science and pastry cooks know just what percentage of sugar they may use in various types of sweet breads, pastries and cakes. Honey, sweet syrups and glucose are counted as sugar in this regulation so they cannot get around the sugar ordinance by using a substitute of that sort. Raisins and currants, however, and other dried fruits in which the sugar is part of the fruit and has not been added to it are not counted as sugar and so are very frequently used by way of adding to the sweet taste of the cake or pastry.

Of course, we in America are guided by no ordinance in this matter, but patriotism ought to guide us in not eating or making cakes with a great amount of sugar in their makeup. To use frosting on fresh, light cake is really a redundancy. The cake is more wholesome without it and if you are hungry enough to eat cake at all you are hungry enough to take it without the frosting. Sometimes a plain pastry cake may be dusted with a little powdered sugar by way of finishing it and this requires very little sugar compared with a frosting. A nut pressed in the middle of a freshly baked patty cake is also nice. For a layer cake you may spread the lower layer with jam or jelly, place the top layer on top of it and serve it either plain or with a dusting of powdered sugar. Two layers of fresh cake may be made into a very nice dessert by putting minced oranges, pineapple or sliced bananas between the layers as a filling. Fruits with considerable sugar in their makeup should need no additional sweetening when used in this way.

Although we have always thought of fruit cake as being very expensive and rich, as a matter of fact it is the type of cake that might better be called war-cake than most so-called layer cakes. In the first place we eat but small pieces of fruit cake. That is an advantage because the cake goes a long way and outlasts a lighter cake that is often in large pieces. Then, too, fruit cake depends on dried fruit for most of its sweetening, and on nuts to a great extent for its shortening. And since nuts and dried fruits are among the few things that we are urged to eat as substitutes for butter, sugar and such commodities, the fruit cake ought to be put on the list of war-time cakes.

Use Less Sugar.

In making cakes make a point always to use a little less sugar than formerly. Among your cake receipts choose the cake batter that contains the least amount of sugar. You will notice that members of your household have never liked it any the less for this sugar shortage. Such cakes as contain apple sauce in their makeup are excellent, even though the apples do need sweetening. Owing to the shortage of vanilla it is expensive and food specialists have urged us therefore to use spices rather than vanilla in flavoring cake. However, that is a matter of personal economy rather than patriotism or public spiritedness. Sugar and other foodstuffs we are most urged to conserve are those foods are needed for the army or to send to our Allies. They are necessities. Vanilla, like other luxuries, is not needed by them. No one suggests that the war can be won on vanilla though we have been told that it can be won on wheat flour and other necessities of diet.

Although in England various species of sweet syrup are counted in computing the percentage of sugar used in cakes and other sweet dishes, still the fact remains when we make a cake with molasses instead of sugar we are doing a patriotic act—small, though worth the line—because we are conserving sugar which can better be transported to the Allies than can molasses or syrup. Hence all sorts of ginger ought to come in for the attention of patriotic cooks nowadays.

Not every one knows that cakes as well as breads may be baked from whole wheat flour. And if there is economy of a large sort in using whole wheat flour for bread then there is also that sort of economy in using it for certain kinds of cake. Look on the directions of your favorite brand of whole wheat flour or Graham flour and you will be sure to see a rule for ginger cake or some other kind of cake that can be made from it.

Oatmeal is used in certain kinds of cookies that are truly patriotic in their ingredients, as they call for comparatively little white flour. Here is the rule: Mix four cups of rolled oats with two cups of white flour, a scant teaspoon of soda, and a pinch of salt. Add two cups of brown sugar and one cup of butter or butter substitute. Roll very thin and cut in squares. This makes a very large batch of cookies and should be baked or quartered for a small family.

If you use a few raisins or chopped dates in a plain cake batter, you can get along without any frosting and with little sugar in its makeup. Of course, you are using white flour, perhaps you are justified in using white flour for it. Chopped nuts, too, although they do not supply any sweetening, still do give enough flavor to a cake to make it unnecessary to use much sugar.

Popovers for Dessert.

Not quite a cake, but something that may be served in place of cake for dessert, and that will be liked especially by children, is a popover filled with whipped cream or with jam or jelly. Make ordinary popovers—and these require neither sugar nor butter, so they may be dubbed very economical. When they are just cool, break them open. They should be baked slowly and long so that they will have a crisp, substantial wall or crust. Now in the cavity place some sort of filling. You can vary this so that a popover with a different filling in it may be served without monotony at least once a week at luncheon. Sometimes put in a teaspoon of raspberry or damson or strawberry jam. Sometimes put in half a canned peach. Sometimes put in chopped dates and whipped cream. Sometimes put in a big stewed fig, with a little of the water in which it is stewed, boiled down until it is thick. And so on, vary the filling often enough to make this dessert useful to you.

Facts and Fancies

By Frank Fairborn

Sir Wilfrid's Manifesto:

Sir Wilfrid has issued his manifesto and he is still opposed to the Military Act.

Sir Wilfrid introduces a great many planks into his platform, on the tariff, on the high cost of living, and on almost every other conceivable subject in order to draw the people's attention away from the vital subject, the Military Act.

Sir Wilfrid says that if he is returned to power that he will suspend the operations of the Military Act until such time as the people have an opportunity to vote on it. He also says he will submit the question to the people in the form of a referendum.

The Globe very fittingly puts it when it says that the troops at the front
want men and Sir Wilfrid gives them words.

The weak point in Sir Wilfrid's whole stand is that he will delay sending reinforcements to the front until he gets a decision from the people to do so and supporting the decision from the people was against conscription then what would Sir Wilfrid do? Sir Wilfrid would naturally return to the voluntary system and if the voluntary system would not produce men, and we have nothing to show that it will, what would Sir Wilfrid do then? The answer is that he would do what he has done right along, nothing.

Sir Wilfrid has shown clearly by his conduct that he has no desire to send reinforcements to the front. In fact, he asserted in Parliament and he has asserted in a statement later, that if he was returned to power he would immediately go to England as he would find out from the British Parliament exactly what they wanted.

I do not know of and I cannot conceive of any more foolish statement that a public man could make at this time than that of Sir Wilfrid.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the mighty statesman and eminent Canadian, would have to go to England to find out what was wanted, when any schoolgirl, or any schoolboy of the age of ten years could tell Sir Wilfrid what was wanted,
and that is men, and more men.

Canada is supplying ample munitions of war, Canada is supplying ample food, Canada is supplying ample money to carry on their share of the war, but Canada has fallen back in supplying men. Consequently when Sir Wilfrid stated that he would go to England to find out exactly what Great Britain wanted Canada to do, he was simply fulfilling the definition that has been given of "language." Some persons have said that language is the means of concealing our thoughts. Sir Wilfrid is making this statement has shown that he is using language to conceal his thoughts, and he uses clever language to try to make people believe that his thoughts are favorable.

The one great blessing that we are to be thankful for is that west of Quebec and east of Quebec both Liberals and Conservatives will to a great extent support the Union Government.

In a great many counties the two parties will combine on one candidate.
In other counties, although there may be a Liberal and a Conservative in the field, each will be pledged to the support of the Union Government, so that outside of Quebec Sir Wilfrid will not have nearly so strong a following as he has figured on. Liberals and Conservatives have realized alike that this is the hour for action not for talk.

Canada will have lots of time in the future to discuss its tariff and its agricultural implements and its many other problems, but the problem and the only problem that should attract the people's attention to-day is how much can we help in the effort to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

Sir Wilfrid is trying to condemn the combines and corporations, but there is not a big combine nor a big corporation in Canada to-day that was not formed under Sir Wilfrid's Government previous to 1911. Sir Wilfrid talks about reducing the high cost of living but he does not explain how a butcher can go out and buy a dressed hog under twenty-five dollars a hundred, nor how a drover can buy a good two-year-old steer under eighty or ninety dollars, nor how a dairyman can buy a good milch cow under a hundred and twenty-five dollars.

It is foolish for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to talk about introducing some panacea or cure-all for the high cost of living, when everything that enters into human food in Canada is produced from the farms and the price at the farmer's gate is high because the demand is in excess of the supply.

Sir Wilfrid proposes to make the farmers take less for his hogs and his cattle and his grain and his potatoes than the market is willing to pay him
at his gate, but before Sir Wilfrid does that he should also provide the farmers with help at reasonable wages when the demand for labor is greater than the supply.

Sir Wilfrid also proposes to conscript wealth and in the next breath he proposes to take the duty off luxuries so that the wealthy man can get his goods cheaper and beat the Government out of the duty. Sir Wilfrid has a wonderful idea of political economy. Sir Wilfrid has had his opportunity and he failed to grasp it.

A Great Drawing Team

By Augustus Brindle

A good drawing team is just as much of a joy to the man that owns it as it is used to be in the bush-log days. We talk a good deal—some of us—about the great horses we used to handle the ribbons over in the bush, lifting out great loads of elm logs, sometimes 1,500 feet or 2,000, sometimes more according to the man who was telling it, from the stump to the skidroad and the co-sawion line.

Certainly some of these teams could draw; and surely some of their drivers did use to talk about it. But there are good average hauling teams in the country now than there were in the bush days. Farmers have gone in for specializing on draughts and roadsters, because they understand that a poor team is bad economy when work has to be done in a hurry. Getting stuck with a load in the fields is a dead waste of time and of temper. We used to be stuck often in the old days with some of those poor teams picked up any old way at an auction sale. But a good span of Clydes or Percherons nowadays is a real piece of insurance against wasting time with stuck loads.
The only thing that happens in that line with such teams is broken harness or a snapped doubletree.

Of course a good deal depended on the driver as it does now. One of the best drawing teams ever known in an Ontario county would pull like a tractor engine for the boss, but when it came to the hired man they saw-sawed and jumped in the collar like a pair of balky Texas steers. When the boss pulled the lines over them and yelled, "Git down together"—they got down, those Bob Hunters, and lifted the load—heavens, how they could lift it! No matter what the load was, grain, or logs, or gravel; it came out of the hole on to the high-road, just by the simple knack of getting down together.

Just now the greatest hauling team ever known in Canada are engaged in lifting the biggest load that a team ever stood in front of. The load, $150,000,000 of Canadian Victory Bonds.

That's a tremendous load. The load is there all right. Canada has the money; twice as much, ready to pile up for victory. It's a matter of lifting the load. It's a matter of what team is to do it, and who will be the driver.

What's the best team for this job?
The Canadian Farmer and the Government of Canada.
If those two can't lift a great part of that load, you might as well leave
it alone.

Who is the driver?
A great boss named Victory.
Victory VICTORY!

Where we have such a large number of children as we have in our town and city schools, the time spent on each one has to be very limited. Some regular routine has then to be considered in order to get through in the time
allotted. Here the school nurse is of very material assistance to us. She arranges the dress for examination and does the clerical work. Printed cards are used to preserve the record of each child from year to year. In this way we can see what progress the child is making, and if our recommendations are being carried out a rapid survey of the child will show the general physical
make up, noting nutrition, mouth breathing (indicating adenoids, presence of pedicul, anemia, enlarged glands, etc.). The mouth being opened, number of decayed teeth, color of gums, the presence of enlarged tonsils, cleft palate, soars on tongue, are noted. The ears are tested with watch, and any departure from normal estimated; also the vision, of a flashlight. The lungs and heart are next gone over, but only a few minutes are available for each child, and complete as they should be. The school nurse is a very important person types for defective vision, at the same time noting diseases of eyelids and eyes itself.

The different defects are noted down on the card according to degree of departure from normal by placing No. 1, 2 or 3 in the spaces opposite, indicating good, slight, very bad.

The nurse calls at the homes of these children and explains to the parents or guardian what we have found wrong, and advises seeing the family physician, specialist or dentist, as indicated. She also reports on the home surroundings and offers any suggestions that she can in regard to the welfare of the child. A tactful nurse can do much good in this way, and is very highly respected.

To use frosting on fresh light cake is really a redundancy. The cake is more wholesome without it and if you are hungry enough to eat cake at all you are hungry enough to take it without the frosting. Sometimes a plain pastry cake may be dusted with a little powdered sugar by way of finishing it and this requires very little sugar compared with a frosting. A nut pressed in the middle of a freshly baked party cake is also nice. For a layer cake you may spread the lower layer with jam or jelly, place the top layer on top of it and serve it either plain or with a dusting of powdered sugar. Two layers of fresh cake may be made into a very nice desert by putting minced oranges, pineapple or sliced bananas between the layers as a filling. Fruits with considerable sugar in their makeup should need no additional sweetening when used in this way.

Although we have always thought of fruit cake as being very expensive and rich, as a matter of fact it is the type of cake that might better be called war-cake than most so-called layer cakes. In the first place we eat but small pieces of fruit cake. That is an advantage because the cake goes a long way and outlasts a lighter cake that is often in large pieces. Then, too, fruit cake depends on dried fruits for most of its sweetening, and on nuts to a great extent for its shortening. And since nuts and dried fruits are among the few things that we are urged to eat as substitutes for butter, sugar and such commodities, the fruit cake ought to be put on the list of war-time cakes.

Use Less Sugar. In making cakes make a point always to use a little less sugar than formerly. Among your cake receipts choose the cake batter that contains the least amount of sugar. You will notice that members of your household have never liked it any the less for this sugar shortage. Such cakes as contain apple sauce in their makeup are excellent, even though the apples do need sweetening. Owing to the shortage of vanilla it is expensive and food specialists have urged us therefore to use spices rather than vanilla in flavoring cake. However, that is a matter of personal economy rather than patriotism or public spiritedness. Sugar and other foodstuffs we are most urged to conserve are those foods are needed for the army or to send to our Allies. They are all necessities. Vanilla, like other luxuries, is not needed by them. No one suggests that the war can be won on vanilla though we have been told that it can be won on wheat flour and other necessities of diet.

Although in England various species of sweet syrup are counted in computing the percentage of sugar used in cakes and other sweet dishes, still the fact remains when we make a cake with molasses instead of sugar we are doing a patriotic act—small, though worth the doing—because we are conserving sugar which can better be transported to the Allies than can molasses or syrup. Hence all sorts of ginger ought to come in for the attention of patriotic cooks nowadays.

Not every one knows that cakes as well as breads may be baked from whole wheat flour. And if there is economy of a large sort in using whole wheat flour for bread then there is also that sort of economy in using it for certain kinds of cake. Look on the directions of your favorite brand of whole wheat flour or Graham flour and you will be sure to see a rule for ginger cake or some other kind of cake that can be made from it.

Oatmeal is used in certain kinds of cookies that are truly patriotic in their ingredients, as they call for comparatively little white flour. Here is the rule: Mix four cups of rolled oats with two cups of white flour, a scant teaspoon of soda, and a pinch of salt. Add two cups of brown sugar and one cup of butter or butter substitute. Roll very thin and cut in squares. This makes a very large batch of cookies and should be halved or quartered for a small family.

If you use a few raisins or chopped dates in a plain cake batter, you can get along without any frosting and with little sugar in its makeup. Of course, you are still using white flour, perhaps you are justified in using white flour for it. Chopped nuts, too, although they do not supply any sweetening, still do give enough flavor to a cake to make it unnecessary to use much sugar.

Popovers for Dessert.

Not quite a cake, but something that may be served in place of cake for dessert, and that will be liked especially by children, is a popover filled with whipped cream or with jam or jelly. Make ordinary popovers and these require neither sugar nor butter, so they may be baked very economical. When they are just cooked, break them open. They should be baked slowly and long so that they will have a crisp, substantial wall or crust. Now in the cavity place some sort of filling. You can vary this so that a popover with a different filling in it may be served without monotony at least once a week at luncheon. Sometimes put in a teaspoon of raspberry or damson or strawberry jam. Sometimes put in half a canned peach. Sometimes put in chopped dates and whipped cream. Sometimes put in a big stewed fig, with a little of the water in which it is stewed, boiled down until it is thick. And so on, vary the filling often enough to make this dessert useful to you.

Township Council meets in regular session again on Saturday, Nov. 17.

For Sale—Five passenger Ford car in good running order. Apply to E. J. Woodworth & Sons, GRIMSBY.

For Sale—Two second-hand Ford touring cars in good condition. Apply to W. Oille, GRIMSBY Garage, GRIMSBY.

A large number of Orangemen from this district attended the church service in Smithville on Sunday last in commemoration of Guy Fawkes Day.

Owing to the heavy rush of advertising, there is a large amount of real reports of meetings, etc., crowded out of this issue.

Wanted—A number of White Wyandotte pullets. Apply to Mrs. John Monaghan, phone 97 ring 31, GRIMSBY.

For Sale—A large wicker baby carriage. Apply to Mrs. Fred St. John, residence over H. G. & B. electric railway station, corner Oak and Main Sts.

NOTICE—Will the party who borrowed the medium sized club bag from the Hotel Grimsby about two months ago, kindly return same and receive reward. A. E. VanDyke, GRIMSBY.

There will be an auction sale of farm stock, implements, feed, potatoes, dug and in the ground; at the farm of Glover J. Smith, on the lake shore, half a mile east of Jordan Station, on Wednesday, Nov. 14. Sale at one o'clock. Terms cash. D. E. Swanze, bailiff.

The marriage was solemnized in St. Andrews Church, GRIMSBY, on Thursday afternoon last, of Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mrs. Ross, Mountain St. to Capt. T. (Ray) Johnson, 1st Battalion, C.E.F., later of the 7th South Lancshires, and now of the 2nd C.O.R., second son of Mrs. Thos. Johnson.

Mr. George M. Sweet of South GRIMSBY, who has purchased the Swackhammer residence on Kidd Ave. GRIMSBY, held an auction sale on Tuesday, when Mr. Jas. A. Livingston sold a fine lot of cattle, horses and implements for splendid prices. Mr. Sweet was more than pleased with the result of his sale as it netted him the nice sum of $2,863.00. Besides this sum Mr. Sweet has disposed of, previous to the sale, nearly $700 worth of cattle, hay and other farm produce.

Pte. Harry H. Garr, an old GRIMSBY boy and son of Mrs. Geo. Garr, North GRIMSBY, returned home from the front on Saturday night last and is at present at his home in Hamilton. Pte. Garr will be remembered as a ten mile runner of note a few years ago. He went overseas with the 95th and was all through the hard winter campaign last winter "getting him" at Vimy Ridge on April 19th, when he left a part of his leg behind him. He will be confined to hospital for sometime yet and will be fitted with a cork foot.

DEATH OF MRS. BERT HARSHAW
The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harshaw at GRIMSBY, Beamsville and Vinemount will learn with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Harshaw in Welland Hospital on Tuesday evening, November 6th, after a brief illness.

The late Mrs. Harshaw was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stragway of Vinemount, and was married on December 12, 1915, less than two years ago.

The funeral will take place on Thursday, November 8th, services in the Methodist Church, Fonthill, at two o'clock in the afternoon, interment in the cemetery at the same place.

The young husband will receive the sympathy of all his friends in this part of the country in his sudden and severe bereavement.

OLD PARTY EXECUTIVES

Belgium to fill the gaps of the "British" contemptibles," and generally the eldest son of the late E. A. Lancaster, Lincoln's representative in the Commons for fifteen years.

"No Communication."
But the metaphorical fence was up. The statement was placed before the conference by one of Mr. Robertson's followers that "no communication" had been received to the effect that such compromise negotiations were to be brought forward.

Mr. Drope then demanded from J. M. Elson, president of the Liberal Association, if the latter had not informed his executive of his visit to Elson's office that morning and of his intention that a deputation desired to meet a deputation from the Liberal executive with a view to reaching an understanding that would avoid a war-time contest if possible.

Mr. Elson declared he had so notified his executive.

Mr. Petrie nevertheless held to the contention that no communication in the complete accepted parliamentary sense of the word had been received—that of the written order—was before the meeting, consequently they had nothing sufficiently official to act upon, and thus the outside dream of a complete, sacrificing, strife-avoiding, party-difference-sink achievement structure which seemed possible at the opening of the conference perished in its initial stages as far as that meeting was concerned, and the adjournment was reached with the grim, menacing ogre of party strife still roaming at liberty when the grave seemed all dug and yawning to receive it.

MEDICAL BOARD TO SIT HERE

After many days of work, during which time the telegraph wires were nearly burned to a frazzle, Reeve Parrell has at last succeeded in getting the authorities in charge of the Military Service Act, to have a travelling Medical Board sit in GRIMSBY.

His worship received a wire last week to the effect that a medical board, which will be assisted by two local doctors, would sit in GRIMSBY on Friday and Saturday of this week. They will be located in Snettinger's Hall and all young men in Class 1 who have not yet been before a Board can appear before this Board for examination.

This Medical Board will be here for the convenience of all Class 1 men in this district and as they sit on the last two days that you have a chance to appear before a Board in person, you had better grasp the opportunity and save yourself time and trouble.

RED CROSS WORK UNDER THE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Oct. 21st.—30 Suits pyjamas and pairs socks were shipped to Red Cross headquarters, Toronto.

That the patriotic spirit prevades in Lake Lodge School has been evidenced by the contributions of the pupils to local and outside Red Cross work. The Institute appreciates very much their hearty response to the recent appeal for workers. The boys are now busy knitting and hemming face cloths.

Regular weekly sewing Wednesday afternoons in our new room over the Bank of Commerce. Come and assist. The need is great. Colonel Noel Marshall, Chairman of the Canadian Red Cross Society, reports that, on account of recent heavy fighting, there is a gradually increasing demand for Red Cross supplies. Within a period of five days, over $50,000 has been expended for the purchase of gloves, surgeons' gowns, sweaters, balaclava caps, mufflers, mitts, handkerchiefs, canned goods, maple sugar and general hospital supplies.

LOCAL CASUALTIES

PTE. EARLE A. PACKHAM.—The last roll call of the brave has been answered by another gallant young member of the 129th battalion, who went overseas in August, 1916. Word was received Saturday, November 3, that Pte. Earle A. Packham had been killed in action on October 21. Pte. Packham enlisted in February, 1916, at Bimbrook, and was later drafted to the 123rd battalion in England, and was sent on to France in March, 1917. Pte. Packham was the only remaining member of the signal section of the 129th battalion left as signaller when drafted to England, being at days first in his examinations while at Dundas.

Pte. Packham, before enlisting, was taking a drug course in Hamilton, and would have received his pharmacy diploma this year had he not heard the call and felt it his duty to offer his life for his friends. He was of a cheerful disposition, and made numerous friends wherever he went. Letters received by the family and friends from France were always bright and never contained a complaint. He was a member of the Methodist church and of the Y.P.A.B. C. Deceased was in his twenty-first year. Besides his parents he leaves to mourn his loss four brothers, one of whom is serving his country in France, and four sisters. A large number of relatives and friends will regret to hear of Pte. Packham's death. Pte. Packham was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Packham, of Caledonia.

Deceased was a native of Arkona, Ont., where he was born 33 years ago, and resided in this district the greater part of his life. In 1910 he graduated at Toronto university, taking his M.A. degree, and the following year obtained his scholarship. Then for one year he was engaged as a teacher at the University High school in Toronto, following which he went to Columbia university, New York, where he spent two years. He was working on his thesis for the Ph.D. degree when he went overseas. While at the famous American institution he was president of the British Empire club and a member of the Phi Delta Kappa society. He then took the position of English master at Stratford school.

Lieut. Pickering was of a studious yet withal bright and cheerful disposition, and his friends both here and in the United States are legion. He was a member of Fifty Methodist church, Winona, and was president of the Historical club at the University of Toronto. His father passed away when the young soldier was only four months old. Surviving are his mother and one sister, Miss Evelyn Frost.

Lieut. Howard Pickering, Not once nor twice but many times, has the village of Winona, in the present war, been bereaved of the best of its young manhood. Announcement was made yesterday that Lieut. Howard Vincent Pickering, the only son of Mrs. W. W. Frost, had given

THE HOME OF QUALITY GROCERIES

FISH

Government Fish for Grimsby has proved very disappointing so we have arranged for a supply of Fresh Lake and Sea Fish to arrive every Thursday.

If there is a good demand for them we will keep them continually. There is no sane argument against the use of Fish as almost a daily diet. It is ideal as a food. It is highly nutritious and rich in proteins. It is most easily digested. It contains in great abundance the chemical ingredients making bone, muscle and tissue. Fish are also very clean feeders.

We expect prices to be Very Reasonable

Where Travel and Change of Climate Failed to Restore Health

Hamilton, Ont., Apr. 1917.
"About four years ago I wrote you of my condition from Neuritis and Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble and my efforts through travel and change of climate to rid myself of these troublesome guests, and how I finally found relief in Gin Pills after spending a lot of time and money in foreign lands."

"Since then Gin Pills have been my sheet anchor. I find in advancing years a tendency to the kidneys to get out of order more easily than formerly but a few doses of Gin Pills put them right and ward off other and more serious trouble. When I remember what I endured through Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism and the freedom from these which I now enjoy, I feel it out only a duty but a pleasure to recommend Gin Pills for Kidney and Bladder Troubles to my thousands of personal friends throughout Canada to whom I am well known as a commercial traveller of over forty years' active service."

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations

The sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (but not Sub-Agency) on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land for each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 5 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

Live stock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions. In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section although his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent, also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

District Summary

Buy Victory Loan.

A branch of the Great War Veterans Association has been formed in Welland.

Port Dalhousie has passed a by-law requiring all grocery stores to close at 7 o'clock every evening except Saturday.

Sheriff O'Laughlin of St. Catharines, has been appointed Returning Officer for Lincoln in the forthcoming election.

Building records for the month reached $21,000 as compared with $16,297 for October last year. The total for the first ten months this year is $226,181, and for the first ten months last year $176,125.

Haldimand Liberals met on Tuesday in Cayuga, and decided that Mr. J. J. Parsons who had been their candidate for several years as a supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, should remain in the field.

A general meeting of the Members of the Peninsular Central Agr. Society will be held in Brant's Hall, Smithville on Friday evening, November 16th, 1917, at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m. to authorize the Board to lease a portion of their grounds to the Smithville Bowling Club.

The customs duties collected at the port of Welland for the month of October amounted to $137,098 as compared with $54,176 for the same month last year. The month that has just passed was the largest in the history of the local office. Several months this year have established new and now, once more, all records go by the board.

Mr. F. L. Sak, of Hamilton, drilling for Mr. C. E. Steele of Port Colborne, struck a gas well last week on the lake shore in Sherbrooke township which is reported to be a record breaker for this field. Its capacity is estimated at 3,000,000 cubic feet a day. The gas will be piped to Port Colborne for consumption there.

Smithville Review.—The fuel situation in Smithville is becoming very acute during the early cold weather. Coal is out of the question at the present time and the coal bins at the station are completely empty. W. B. Shrum, the local merchant went to considerable expense last year erecting new sheds along the new siding of the T. H. & L. was unable to obtain coal to place in them for the winter.

The death of John H. Headlip occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, early Monday morning. Deceased was a resident of Wellandport and his death will be regretted by a host of friends in that district. He was 62 years of age and had resided in Wellandport for many years. For a number of years he was a justice of the peace and postmaster in Wellandport but for the past few years had been living retired. Surviving him is his wife and one son, Leonard of Saskatchewan. The remains were sent to Wellandport for interment.

Welland Telegraph.—The Welland County Branch of the Independent Labor party at a convention held in the city hall, Welland, on Sunday afternoon nominated James A. Hughes, Alderman Welland, as candidate for the House of Commons and Mr. Hughes accepted the nomination. Ten days ago, George C. Scott also of Welland was nominated. He was not present at Sunday's meeting but sent a letter stating that he would not accept the nomination.

Beamsville Express.—Mr. Geo. Stewart, son of Angus Stewart, Clinton Township, who is attending Medical College at Kingston has again distinguished himself in his professional studies. Last year he obtained a scholarship and this year a Fellowship in Anatomy. Attached to this Fellowship is a good handsome purse and a part of the lecture on this subject during the coming term to first and second year students. The Express extends congratulations.

The home of Mrs. C. S. Williams 433 Kendal Avenue, Toronto, was made beautiful with yellow chrysanthemums, palms and ferns, on Wednesday Oct. 24th, the occasion being the marriage of her daughter Edith Florence, to the Rev. Charles E. MacLeod of Beamsville. The Rev. Dr. W. J. Macay conducted the ceremony. The bride wore white corded silk with veil caught with lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. Her bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Beatty, wore pink crepe de chine and black velvet hat. The bridesman was Mr. Williams of the Royal Flying Corps. Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod left for a trip to New York, the bride wearing a Burgundy suit and black velvet hat with ermine fur.—Lodge.

Beamsville Express.—A well known resident of Clinton Township passed away on Thursday Oct. 25, at the home of his brother, in the person of Peter Stewart. Deceased was in his fifty-second year and had resided in this district all his life, for the past year making his home with his brother Angus Stewart. Two brothers, John and Angus, Clinton Township, and three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Henry, Clinton Township, and Isabelle and Janet of Hamilton, survive. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the residence of Angus Stewart. Interment in Mount O'Connell Cemetery.

Smithville Review.—A Company was formed in Smithville on Tuesday to complete the subscription required for the sinking of a gas well for natural gas for Smithville. Committees were appointed to complete the work of arranging for the first well which will be drilled by Mr. J. A. Coleman, of Wellandport, at once. The rig will be moved to the scene of operations just as soon as the roads are fit to move the apparatus. Drilling will be commenced at once. A committee was also appointed to secure a few more leases in the locality. The first well will be sunk on the J. H. Patterson farm near the Kennedy school house. The Review wishes the scheme every success. May they get a gusher and many of them.

Smithville Review.—At a meeting of the Town Fathers the matter of giving the local electric light consumers cheaper juice was considered and a resolution was passed on which will take direct effect at once, November 1st. The new rate is 10c per first 10 k. w., 5c per second 10 k. w., 3c per third 10 k. w. and the over-run at 1 1/2c. This will give us the same minimum as at present but will be some inducement for consumers to use the same for heating and cooking purposes. It is thus figured out that the extra amount consumed will be at a cheaper rate—the juice consumed for heating purposes.

St. Catharines Standard.—John Senior, a young lad of 18 years, appeared in police court Tuesday morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of having liquor other than in his own private dwelling house. Before him lying on the floor, was the evidence of his guilt, a suit case containing 12 bottles of whiskey. The young lad admitted that during the past three months he had been purchasing liquor and selling it, making about $10 a case. He had the liquor sent to his brother's home in Toronto from where he secured it, bringing it to St. Catharines in a suitcase. License Inspector King has been suspicious of the man for some time, but last night was the first opportunity the inspector had to have the man arrested. It is believed that the young man was influenced by a person or persons to secure the booze for them. The young man was sorry for his misdeeds and expressed a desire to quit the business. The fine imposed was $305.60.

St. Catharines Standard.—At an adjourned session on Tuesday evening the city council took forward progressive steps in the effort to relieve the coal shortage and high pressure on foodstuffs, by passing a provincial by-law to be sanctioned by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board and pursuant to its provisions put through a resolution to apply to that board for power to deal in the following fuel and foodstuffs, namely: Coal and wood, fish and potatoes and for the necessary powers incident thereto, and upon obtaining the approval of the said Board to forthwith apply for the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council; and for the aforesaid purposes the Mayor and Chairman of Conservation Committee with the City Solicitor are hereby appointed a Committee with all power necessary to proceed with the said application.

TAPLEYTOWN

The October meeting of St. George's Church Women's Auxiliary to this place met at the home of Mrs. Robt. Bell, Sr. and Jr. with a splendid attendance. After the usual devotional exercises had been gone through with, Mrs. R. Bell Jr., the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which met with the entire satisfaction. The usual sewing work was dispensed with to give place to an Address on Western Canada's Missionary work, by the pastor Rev. Percy Richardson which was intensely interesting in which he revealed the great help and encouragement the work of the Women's Auxiliary in Eastern Canada was in making the Mission work a success in the West. Rev. Mr. Richardson having spent eight years in Western Missionary work had experienced in his own work the universal assistance of the Auxiliary, which fixed within the minds of his hearers a greater interest for promoting their work. A hearty vote of thanks was given their pastor for his splendid address. After which a tasty lunch was served by the genial hostesses during a short social chat followed by a vote of thanks to the hostesses for their kind hospitality during the afternoon. The meeting was then closed with singing God Save the King.

SMITHVILLE NEWS

A bowling green club was formed at a meeting held in Ireta & Griffin's office on Friday night with E. W. Murgatroyd as President and A. G. Bolter Vice. Patriotic citizens of Smithville would suggest that luxuries of this kind be cut out until after the war and the money now subscribed, about $300, be applied to the Victory War Loan.

Owing to the fuel situation for the coming winter, the business men of Smithville are trying to raise sufficient money to drill a gas well south of the Village, $750.00 being subscribed in twenty minutes. This is a real patriotic move, for if gas is found in paying quantities it will relieve the coal shortage here.

On Nov. 8th the little Village of St. Ann's will be offered for sale by public auction, at least a portion of it will be offered. All roads lead to Smithville now.

Canadian Officers Honored by Residents of York, Pa.

Major Lancaster and Captain Bell of St. Catharines Presented With a Very Impressive Address and Handsome Gold Mounted Walking Sticks.

At a luncheon given in their honor by the Red Cross at the Lafayette Club in York, Pa., last week, two St. Catharines officers, Major E. H. Lancaster and Capt. C. J. Bell, were each presented with a handsome gold mounted walking stick.

In making the presentation, Mr. H. C. Niles delivered the following tribute to Canadians and the British Empire:

Major Lancaster and Captain Bell: We ask you to accept these walking sticks as mementos of your stay in York. We appreciate what you have done for us in our little County, tucked away in a small corner of the great world. You have brought to our attention vital human truths, unlimited by geographical boundaries. Through the unvarnished report of your personal experiences we have caught a glimpse of the universal. Of the remnant of the band of Canadian heroes we viewed you with a kind of awe. Such virtues as that of you and your fellows one would expect to be embodied in the gigantic figures of demi-gods.

We have found you simple minded, straightforward modest gentlemen, just such as always achieve the best things of life. You ought to be at least eight feet high and be surrounded with a halo like the nimbus of a saint.

When the horrid blast of depraved German ambition shot as out of the mouth of hell-pit, the bleeding thin line of Canadian heroes faced its withering flame and saved Calais and thereby stayed the assault upon the liberties of all mankind. Had you failed, the shriek of murdered freedom had echoed round the world. Chivalric France would have been crushed under the Oppressor's heel; England might today have been another Belgium, and America be a subject continent, paying taxes to the Prussian tyrant.

When the crisis came in 1914, our crisis no less than yours, while we dallied in cowardly, selfish ease, you promptly sprung in defense of human rights, ready, fearlessly, with all your strength, even to the last full measure of devotion. We, who are today beneficiaries of your valor and of the martyrdom of your slaughtered comrades, ought to kneel before you as the relics of those thirty thousand Canadian immortals. You are the representatives to us of the glorious British Empire, that Empire which now is the chief defense, against a German tyrant, of the doctrines of our Declaration of Independence which was made effective by liberty loving men in England no less than in America in 1776, against the pretensions of another German tyrant on the English throne. The British Empire to-day in its truest sense has no geographical limitations. It is rather a spiritual realm. The martial airs of England follow the sun's course, and England's drum beat is heard around the world.

The glory and the power of England depends not on force, but in this, wherever waves the Union Jack there are protected the equal rights of man. For four years England and France have been sacrificing without stint their treasure and their blood in defense of the political gospel which America proclaimed to the world in our immortal Declaration when the Star Spangled Banner blossomed as the passion flower of '76. Our country is preparing tardily, but with daily increasing speed, to take its place with yours, where it ought to have been long ago.

The United States of America, the British Empire, are not so much places on the map as they are conditions of human enlightenment. Whoever believes and is ready to fight for those great self-evident truths, all men are created equal and are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, and, to protect these rights governments are established among men deriving only their just powers from the consent of the governed. Is a joint citizen of the United States of America and of the British Empire. Wherever America goes, and wherever England goes, every man is secure in the same rights and privileges before the law as the American or Englishman. An inspired American prophet of democracy said: "I speak the pass word primeval; I give the sign of democracy, my God I will accept nothing which every other human being what soever may not have upon the same terms." That is the political application of the Golden Rule. That is the unbreakable bond uniting the enlightened democracies of the world in the league of liberty. That is the moral reason why victory, however long delayed, is sure. An American poet sang: "Where'er a single slave doth pine, Where'er one man may help another, (Thank God for such a birthright brother) That line of ground is thine."

That is the true man's birth place grand, His is a world wide fatherland." Victory in this war will confirm us in this our common political birth-right.

We, here in York, thank you for the inspiration you have given us and most heartily hope for your safety and success, and say most sincerely, God bless you.

In reply, both the Canadian officers expressed their appreciation for the kindness and hospitality of the people of York, and hoped that their visit would be beneficial to the Second Liberty Loan in York County and if they had added the smallest bit to the feeling of amity and understanding between the two great English speaking countries, their visit had not been in vain.

BOGUS CHECKE ARTIST AGAIN

The phoney cheque game was played in St. Catharines with success on two local merchants on Wednesday. A well dressed man about 45 years of age did the deed in both cases but signed different names to the cheques which were on two local banks. The man purchased a trunk the value of $8 from Oke & Son and tendered a cheque for $25 on the Union Bank, receiving the change and ordering the trunk to be delivered to GRIMSBY. From Levitt & Co. stores to the amount of $105 were purchased and a cheque for $150 on the Sterling Bank tendered and accepted. The stores were also ordered to be sent to GRIMSBY. To the cheque on the Union Bank for $25 the name J. T. Clark was signed and to the cheque on the Sterling Bank for $150 the name Duncan McIntyre was signed. Both signatures were in the same handwriting. The man is yet at large.—St. Catharines Standard.

The Military Service Act, 1917

DON'T DELAY! Do It TODAY

THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT is passed; the Proclamation issued October 13th. It is now the bounden duty of every man in Class One to report for service or claim exemption. This includes all bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917.

What To Do

Go to your Post Office and ask for the form for reporting for service or for claiming exemption. The form contains clear instructions for filling in. Do this not later than NOVEMBER 10th.

Beware of the Last Minute Rush

With so many thousands of reports and claims to be dealt with, the rush of Class One Men will grow heavier day by day. You will waste less of your time and money in the last days.

The law is being enforced with the Government and the People firmly behind it. Obey the law. Do it today.
